MEET YOUR 2018 TOUR GUIDES

PETER GASGOYNE-LOCKWOOD After leaving school joined the British Army and served in many parts of the world. In 1992 he moved to Virginia and over the next two years visited most the major battlefields. Later he meet with the publisher of the Civil War Magazine and it was through him that he was invited to write a battlefield guidebook, "Virginia's Civil War Battlefields' was published in 1993. Battlefield tours and lectures followed. On his return to the UK in 1996, he represented the Civil War Society in Europe and led their first tour from the USA to Great Britain. Since then he has guided over 30 American Civil War tours as well as many WW1 and WW2 and history themed tours throughout Europe.

NEIL MANGUM Neil is a career public historian and well known lecturer on the Indian Wars. He grew up near the Petersburg Battlefield in Virginia and had an early interest in history as a re-encator. He has an M.A. in history from the University of New Mexico and is the author of the Battle of the Rosebud, Prelude to the Little Big Horn. Neil is a member of the Board of Directors of the Friends of the Little Big Horn. He worked for the National Park Service for many years, retiring in 2003.

JAMES SCOTT-CLARKE was commissioned into The Grenadier Guards. Over the next 20 years he served with his regiment in Germany, Berlin, Hong Kong, Kenya, Bosnia and the Sudan. James also had a variety of desk and command jobs within the United Kingdom and was promoted to Lieutenant Colonel in 1991. He was at the NATO HQ in Mons in Belgium for three years. He retired from the Army at the end of 2008, and that year bought a house in Normandy. Since then James has devoted much of his time in getting to know the area, both culturally and in studying the D-Day Battlefields. He has carried out regular D-Day and Battle of Normandy tours for groups, mainly from the USA. James has a special interest in the US 82nd & 101st Airborne & US 1st & 29th Infantry Divisions.

AMERICAN CIVIL WAR: 'THE GETTYSBURG CAMPAIGN 9 JUNE - 23 JULY 1863'

JUNE 1 – 10

After the defeat of the Union Army at Chancellorsville Robert E Lee decided to move north in order to take the war into Union territory; his aim was to force a cessation to the fighting and the recognition of the Confederacy as a nation by international powers. However he did not have Stonewall Jackson, his most reliable commander, as he had been killed two months earlier.

OPERATION OVERLORD & D-DAY

JUNE 8 – 12

The invasion of Normandy by Allied forces on the 6th of June 1944 was the Western Allies most critical operation of the war. The fifty miles of Normandy coastline across which Operation Overlord was launched is one of the most important battlefields of the Second World War. If the attack had failed, and Hitler's Wehrmacht had succeeded in pushing the invaders back into the sea, then the whole course of the Second World War would have altered. This tour helps you to see some of the realities of Operation Overlord by visiting the beaches and battlefields of Normandy. It takes in the principal landing sites, museums and monuments on one of the best-preserved battlefields of the 1939 - 45 war.

- JUNE 8: Depart Portsmouth (afternoon sailing) for Caen. Overnight Bayeux.
- JUNE 9: We commence the day by a visit to the British eastern flank 6th Airborne Division landing grounds at Ranville and Benouville ("Pegasus Bridge") then on to the Merville Battery. We travel west via "Sword" beach (3rd British Division), and Colville-Montgomery to "Juno", the (3rd Canadian Division) beach at Bernieres and St Aubin. 2nd night Bayeux.
- JUNE 10: To Gold Beach, 50th British Division, and Arromanches. Visit the cliff top bunkers and blockhouses and look out over the remains of the Mulberry floating harbour. Visit to the Landings Museum on the seafront. After lunch we drive to Bayeux where you will have an opportunity to visit the Bayeux Tapestry. 3rd night Bayeux.
- JUNE 11: This morning we drive west towards the American landing beaches, crossing the Douve Canal at Carentan, heading for Sainte Mere Eglise, in this area were the landing zones for the US 82nd & 101st Airborne Divisions. Visit to the Airborne Troops Museum in Ste Mere Eglise. Travel to Utah Beach, US 4th Division, where General Theodore Roosevelt was awarded the Medal of Honor. Visit the battle scarred Ranger bunkers and monument at Pointe du Hoc. Finally we visit Omaha Beach, 1st & 29th US Divisions, & the American Battle Monuments Normandy Cemetery at Colleville. 4th night Bayeux.

- JUNE 12: Before leaving for home we will visit the Bayeux Commonwealth War Graves Commission Cemetery (4,144 graves) and lay a wreath in remembrance to all who gave their lives during the Normandy Campaign. Return from Caen to Portsmouth.

THE PONY EXPRESS

JULY 8 – 19

With the discovery of gold in California, a need for rapid communication between potential investors and vendors produced an early precursor of Federal Express, The Pony Express. Based on an endless run of riders connecting with relay stations and fresh horses, the system was designed to sprint alongside the Oregon and California Trails making the 2000 mile run in just 10 days. It was a spectacular financial bust and yet few innovations in America captured the imagination and spirit of the Wild West.

JULY 8: Arrive in Kansas City after your flight from London Heathrow (one internal change) Overnight Kansas City.

JULY 9: Bus to the starting point at St. Joseph where you will visit several related museums and the home where Jesse James was murdered. The day ends at the Pony Express Station in (Overnight) Marysville, Kansas.

JULY 10: Travel along the route to North Platte, Nebraska visiting Rock Creek Station and Fort Kearny. We visit the site of the Plum Creek Massacre. Overnight North Platte, Nebraska.

JULY 11: Stops include Fort Rankin and sites of attacks conducted during the Civil War by various renegade Indians. You will see landmarks such as Chimney, Jailhouse and Courthouse Rocks. While enroute to Fort Laramie, you will see the ruts cut by Conestoga Wagons along the Oregon Trail. Overnight Guernsey Wyoming.

JULY 12: We push on to the mountainous and pretty town of Lander, Wyoming. En route we visit the National Interpretative Trails Museum and Fort Casper. We will push across the North Platte River to the foot of the great South Pass passage. Overnight Lander Wyoming.

JULY 13: Our milestone today is the crossing through South Pass and our split away from the Oregon Trail to move along the California Trail, we will remind you that the Pony Express was designed to do in 10 days what took settlers 3 to 4 months. Overnight Salt Lake City Utah.

JULY 14: We will head into Salt Lake City and visit the Mormon's Temple Square. We will then move south to visit Camp Floyd and Faust's Station. Overnight Ely, Nevada.

JULY 15: No place is more pristine than the Nevada Basin. This is perhaps the most sobering day as there are no modern structures just the ruins of abandoned stations. It is a bone chilling, unyielding waterless region. Overnight Fallon Nevada

JULY 16: The day starts with another old ghost-Fort Churchill. Troopers from the fort were engaged in the Paiute War which closed the Pony Express Route in May/June 1860. En route to Sacramento where we will tour the Wells Fargo Museum. Overnight San Francisco.

JULY 17: Day at leisure. Overnight San Francisco.

JULY 18: Depart San Francisco for overnight flight to London.

JULY 19: Arrive London Heathrow in the morning.

AMERICAN CIVIL WAR: 'THE EASTERN THEATRE CAMPAIGNS'

SEPTEMBER 8 – 21

In April 1861 the North & South went to war. Nobody where ever they lived could have visualised that it would end four years later, with the deaths of over 600,000 Americans. At Manassas in July 1861, the armies met at the first major battle. Mainly volunteers, these citizens, fighting for what they believed in, experienced the horror of war for the first time. Over the next three years, the Federals advanced, were repulsed and withdrew. It was not until early 1864, when General U S Grant took command that Union might and resources began to grind the Confederates down. Perseverance, bravery and industrial strength finally overwhelmed the South. In early April 1865 it was all over at Appomattox Court House.

SEPTEMBER 8: Fly in to Washington Dulles.

THE LAST 100 DAYS WORLD WAR I

OCTOBER 5 - 8

The Hundred Days Offensive was the final period of the First World War, during which the Allies launched a series of offensives against the Central Powers on the Western Front from 8 August to 11 November 1918, beginning with the Battle of Amiens. The offensive essentially pushed the Germans out of France, forcing them to retreat beyond the Hindenburg Line, and was followed by an armistice. The term "Hundred Days Offensive" does not refer to a specific battle or unified strategy, but rather the rapid series of Allied victories starting with the Battle of Amiens.

WHAT OUR CLIENTS SAY

'Another fantastic trip for "the memory box." What a great group that always answered my dumb questions very gracefully. No bad moments to report only plenty of laughs and an incredible itinerary that worked like clockwork. The trip far exceeded my expectations and I could have "marched to the sea" if we had a few more days'
Graham Baughan, GB

'For me it was a wonderful trip and such great company. Like the previous two that I have been on I have so many fantastic memories. THANK YOU'
Nigel Seaton, GB

'Many of us who have been on your tours before also agreed that this one was the best so far. The whole thing seemed to gel so well, everyone got on with everybody else, we saw some excellent battlefields so beautifully preserved and presented. The scenery was beautiful and spectacular, so many mountains!'

Colin Wilks, GB

'After our last tour with you back in 2015 we were very keen to join you on another trip and once again the experience lived up to our (high) expectations. The itinerary was full and comprehensive with some pleasant and unexpected stops. However what really made the tour a success was your thoughtfulness, consideration and courtesy throughout. I imagine it must be a little trying at times, but you always made every effort to ensure that everyone enjoyed the trip to the fullest' Kevin Francis, GB

'Just a short note to say how much we enjoyed and appreciated the battlefield tour. Could you pass our personal thanks to Iain who we found to be an excellent guide. He brought it all to life for us. In addition we felt that he dealt with the wide experience levels of the group extremely well' Sam & Tim Harry, GB

'I still haven't got over the Ypres tour which was one of the most moving and impressive times of my life. It was all so of-the-minute that it was impossible to accept it as having taken place a hundred years ago. It was brilliant' Maggie Bather, GB
